To Paia Ball Nine

Reis Is Effective and Cockett Wild, With Poor Support; Fielding of Both Sides Somewhat Ragged.

Last Sunday's results: Paia 6, Wacs 3; Puunene 7, Lahaina 1. Next Sunday games: Lahaina vs. Wacs at Lahaina; Puunene vs. Paia at Wailuku.

Paia won its second game in the second series for the baseball championship of Maui by trimming the Wacs last Sunday and the latter now have the cellar position in the league. Reis for Paia was effective with by no means perfect support behind him though Paia shows the team is rounding into shape. He allowed only two hits, issued one pass and fanned nine of the batsmen who faced him. The Wacs played another rather ragged fielding game and Cockett lacked control in the box.

Both scored in the first. William Cummings walked, stole second and scored on the error of Cockett, the Paia backstop. Two runs came to Paia. Yemoto was safe on William Cockett's error and both he and Chartrand were safe on William Cummings' wild throw. McCluskey fanned, Robinson singled, Coleman reached first on a fielder's choice, Reis was out on a fielder's choice and Robinson was caught at the plate.

Again in the third both tallied, Silva getting to first on McCluskey's bungle and getting around without the assistance of a safe drive by any of his teammates. Yemoto made a home run drive for Paia.

This ended the scoring until the seventh when C. Cockett was safe on Curtis' error and advanced on Yemoto's sacrifice which T. Cockett failed to handle; Chartrand singled; C. Cockett was out and McCluskey safe on a fielder's choice; Yemoto scored on Robinson's single; Chartrand was out on Coleman's fielder's choice, McCluskey scored on a wide throw to the plate by T. Cockett.

In the eighth, with one down C. Cockett brought Paia's total to six making a four sacker with one down. The Wacs put over one more in the ninth. Alfonso singled and was safe on second on a wild throw, scoring on William Cummings' safe hit.

Errors Cost Lahaina
Game With Puunene in Good Pitching Battle

Costly errors lost the game for Lahaina to Puunene on the West Maui grounds last Sunday in the first inning. It was a game which would have been a worthwhile pitchers' battle had the Lahaina battery had tight support for both Bal and Devauchelle were effective, each allowing only four hits and passing only one batsman. But six errors by the West Maunites spelled defeat for some of them came when they cost the most and Lahaina was helpless after four runs had been tallied against them in the fateful first. Puunene's fielding game was on a par with Bal's slow work and only two bingles are charged against the Huskies.

Two hits and loose fielding gave the Puunenes their commanding lead in the first and in the same inning Lahaina put across its solitary tally, on one lone hit. Two more unearned runs in the fourth and a run without a hit in the ninth gave Puunene a total of seven.

Silva of Puunene kept up his excellent stick work with two hits in four times at bat while the fielding feature was the double by Enos to Tadashi. The game was a fast one, one of the fastest seen on Maui this season.

Justice on the Job

The bedraggled individual indignantly denied that he was intoxicated when the police officer testified that he found the prisoner lying in the street.

"Very well, then," retorted the versatile judge. "You're fined $5 for parking more than six inches from the curb."—Buffalo Express.

BASKETBALL

Playing Haiku to a standstill, the Wailuku basketball girls' team defeated their rivals last Friday by the score of 12 to 10. The close guarding of the local girls, together with the fine playing of Margaret Lane, spelled defeat for the Pineapple players. It was an exciting game in which the best team won.

With their usual aggressiveness the Haiku girls started off with a rush and, playing perfect ball, massed up 8 points to the locals' 6 in the first half. They hoped that Wailuku would become discouraged in the second half and slow down, but this time they were mistaken. Wailuku speeded up and not only blocked Haiku's star forwards so that they could only score two points in the second half, but managed to pile up six points themselves, thus winning the game.

Margaret Lane was the ace of the Wailuku team in this game. This young lady had a good day and made 10 out of 12 points that her team made. Although closely guarded by a larger opponent, she shot her baskets with deadly accuracy. Bernice Correa of the Haiku team played a very fine game also and was a tower of strength for her team. Wailuku improved very much in their guarding and especially in basket throwing, and this is the reason for their victory.

On the same evening the Haiku boys defeated St. Anthony by the score of 18 to 10. Haiku was much superior in passing and basket shooting and the local boys did not have a chance. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 5 in favor of Haiku, which they increased to 18 to 10 at the end.

Lindsay and Do Rego were stars of the Haiku team that did all the damage. The former played a great game, scoring ten points, while the latter scored six. Wailuku's best man was Hungai, but he was covered so well that he seldom had a chance to show what he could do. Wailuku lost because the men could not shoot baskets. Had they looped the ball more and shot a little more accurately, six to eight points more could have been scored easily.

Maui Polo Team Will Win, Members Believe

Maui polo experts are looking forward to a hard-fought contest for their title to polo supremacy of the Islands this year, but are reasonably confident of once more achieving victory. The first of the elimination games will be played Saturday, August 27, on the Kapiolani Park field in Honolulu between Maui and the Seventeenth Cavalry.

There are several new quantities to be considered in connection with the coming games. Oahu will be stronger than in the Fourth of July game, for David Fleming will be in the saddle in the coming tourney and so will "Pat" Collins, so that it will be practically the team that won the title that will be put forth for Maui.

Oahu will be stronger, for Arthur Rice will be in the game, and has Kauai mounts, the Garden Island team not entering. Oahu can also draw on Spalding, one of the best of the Kauai players, if desired. The Blues have lost to the army in practice, but it was an all-army team, and now there are to be two teams entered from the military.

The deciding contest is to be played between the winners of the two elimination matches and is set for Labor Day.
